The Court finds that the interests of justice in this case, i.e., to provide the parties additional time to seek additional discovery, and for the defendant to consider the need for pre-trial motions, outweigh the best interests of the public and defendant for a trial within seventy days of the filing date (and making public) of the indictment. I further find that not granting this continuance would deny counsel for both the government and the defendant a reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. See 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(B)(iv).
